Council Adopts Personnel Policies On Sick Leave and Shift Rotation

by Virginia Beauchamp

After many months of meeting in a room crowded with debris from carpentry and duct work, sometimes with dust cloths strewn across furniture and access to seating blocked by beams or tables tipped on end, members of the Greenbelt City Council took their places Monday night in a council chamber that looked finished and with all furniture in its proper place. Behind the council members was a wall painted a soft shade of blue which picked up a color in the muted print of draperies hung the entire length of the two side walls. Varnished woodwork glowed. Possibly the room's ambience had something to do with the lack of contentiousness in the way the members went about their business. All was over by 9:30—almost a record.

Sick Leave Policy

Two issues introduced by Police Chief James R. Craze were the major items of business. At his request council adopted a new personnel policy currently applicable to only one member of the Police Department but with potentially wider relevance. This action authorizes the establishment of a sick leave pool into which employees could allocate some of their own sick leave to be used by others whose sick leave had run out.

The issue arose over the case of Officer Thomas Moreland, who suffered extensive burn injuries from an accident while he was on vacation. While Officer Moreland receives temporary disability benefits from the city, these have been supplemented until now by other benefits arising from his own accrued sick leave. Without that supplement, Craze said, Moreland would face a substantial reduction in benefits. Currently he is expected to be ready to return to full employment by September—possibly earlier if he can be assigned to light work.

Since policies of donated sick leave apply in other jurisdictions in the area, Assistant Personnel Officer Barbara Havekost had explored for the city how these might work. Following her inquiry, City Manager James Giese recommended certain limiting regulations to the donation of such leave: 1) that approval be given only on a case-by-case basis, currently affecting only Officer Moreland; (2) that donations be permitted only from employees with accrued leave in excess of 176 hours (the equivalent of 22 days or one calendar month); (3) that donations be made in increments of eight hours, with the maximum by one employee limited to 40 hours (five days); (4) that donations full 80 hours in each biweekly pay period.

Since the relevant city ordinance currently requires 160 hours in a pay period, an amendment extending the hours to 170 would be necessary. Giese said he would have such an amendment ready for the next regular meeting of council, provided that they gave their "blessing" to the proposed change in schedule. This blessing was granted unanimously.

New Police Shift Schedule

An interim ad hoc committee was appointed to assist council in establishing a permanent Youth Advisory Committee. Among those who agreed to serve were three adults—Christopher Duffy, Jeanette Griffin and Karen Yoho—and two youths—Lynne Tucker and Charlie Reuter.

One youth in full Boy Scout regalia, who introduced himself as Jeremy Pritchard, said that he was present at the meeting to fulfill a requirement for a merit badge necessary to become an Eagle Scout. Since one council seat was vacant because of the absence of council member Joe Isaacs, council member Ed Putens invited Pritchard to sit beside him in the empty chair. Mayor Gil Weidenfeld commented that now he had a good view of "the really important people in the room"—that is, the citizens in the audience.

Although this schedule results in an irregular number of hours worked during a pay period, varying from 68 to 85 hours, it complies with the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act Regulations so as to avoid the payment of overtime. In a 52-week period, total hours worked would amount to 2065 hours, instead of the standard 2080. Giese recommended that no effort be made to adjust compensation for the shortfall of 15 hours during a 52-week work year.

The new schedule would result in some fluctuation in number of hours worked in any two-week pay period; nevertheless, because of accounting problems that would confront the city in trying to deal with these fluctuations, Giese recommended that biweekly pay be rendered on the basis of 80 hours of regular time pay. He noted that these changes would only apply to officers working the triangle rotating shift schedule. Other officers would be expected to work a

Gypsy Moth Spraying

The city of Greenbelt is planning an aerial spraying of about 85 acres this spring as part of this year's gypsy moth suppression program. The blocks to be sprayed include about eight different areas in the central city and Greenbelt East.

Areas to be sprayed by the city this year include the woods behind the Lutheran Church on Greenbelt Road; the woods adjacent to the Greenbelt Armory; Indian Springs Park; the woods adjacent to the Public Works and Police facilities; Greenbriar Park; the school board property on Mandan Road across from Greenbriar Park; the strip of woods behind homes on Matthew Street; and a portion of Schrom Hill's Park. These areas will be sprayed with Dimilin, which is a highly effective gypsy moth caterpillar suppressant.

For the last three years, the city has hired a consultant, Espro, Inc., to perform counts of egg masses throughout the city. This year's counts showed much smaller populations than the previous two years. This is due in part to the City's suppression program of the last two years and in part to the fact that egg mass counts are down naturally

New Crossing Signal Now Operating at ERHS

The crossing signal installed on Greenbelt Road at Frankfort Drive for high school students has been activated this week. It is timed to operate at the start and end of the school day. It is not pedestrian activated.

throughout the region.

The 85 acres to be sprayed this year are about one-fifth the area which the City contracted to spray last year. Unlike last year, the Maryland Department of Agriculture will not be conducting any aerial spraying in Greenbelt this year, although the Beltsville Agricultural Research Center will be sprayed.

The city also plans to continue selling gypsy moth caterpillar tape at cost to residents. The small investment of a roll of tape can protect individual trees in a homeowner's yard. Because the city had problems with the brand of tape used last year (many residents complained that the tape did not stick to trees) the city is exploring alternative brands of tape to sell this year.

For more information about this year's gypsy moth suppression program, contact the city office at 474-8000.

GEAC Meeting Offers Full Details On Participating in PG Recycling

by Pat Scully

Recycling is coming to the townhouses in Greenbelt East, as well as to the city's trash customers, starting in the middle of April. Marcelino Cole, residential recycling specialist from the Prince Georges County Office of Recycling, brought the news to the March 7 meeting of the Greenbelt East Advisory Coalition (GEAC). Cole will be in touch with all of the city's townhouse communities that do not have city trash pickup so that curbside pick-up points can be decided on.

Earlier plans had included only city trash customers in the county recycling program until the county's Materials Recycling Facility (MRF) was constructed, which will take at least until 1992. The county has decided, however, that the temporary MRF in Capital Heights can handle the load. Currently, 35,000 households are recycled. Picking up Greenbelt's recyclables will add 14,000 households, with another 125,000 to go. The county's plan is to add all of the municipalities to the program (except Eagle Harbor, because of the distance involved) as temporary MRF's can be established and bring the rest of the county on board when the "Major MRF" is ready.

Materials for recycling will be picked up once a week. The contractor will divide the city into two zones and pick up in each zone alternately on either Tuesday or Thursday. Although the county tries to coincide with trash collection days, this may not always be possible since recycle collection zones will not be identical with regular trash collection zones and schedules.

Curbside Pick-up

Cole's major area of concern in meeting with GEAC was curbside pickup. While trash collection in some communities is done at the rear of each unit, recycling pickup must be at curbside (except in GHI, which is a separate issue). Since some townhouse units do not have a curb, Cole will be talking with the individual communities to work out places for residents to put out their recyclable materials.

Curbside locations for curbside units include reserved parking spaces, such as in Windsor Green or Greenbrook Village, alongside the container of a unit with curbs or at a nearby corner.

Each household will also receive a postcard announcing details of the program and giving the county telephone number to call with questions, complaints or compliments about the contractor or requests for replacement containers. Cole's number is 925-5963.

Ora Glen Light Update

James Foy, GEAC Chair, reported on the action taken by council at the February 25 meeting, when council voted 5-0 to proceed with the installation of the traffic light at Hanover Parkway and Ora Glen Drive/Hanover Park Drive. City staff's 5-day traffic count of the traffic generated by Commerce Center III at 80 percent occupancy showed more than 220 trips. Commerce is required to pay for installation of the light if it generated more than 170 trips at 90 percent occupancy, which it clearly does.

The light will have a protected left-turn lane from southbound Hanover Parkway to Ora Glen. It will be sensorized so that Hanover Parkway traffic will only get a red signal if there is cross traffic. Also, a pedestrian button will give a longer red light, but not a red on demand.

Current time estimates are four weeks for engineering design of the left-turn lane addition, four weeks for the bid process, and six to ten weeks for construction. The light should be in operation in mid to late July.

School Zone Speed Limit

Foy, Ed Schilling of Windsor Green and Councilmember Ed Putens all urged GEAC members to call, fax and write to state delegates asking for their support of House Bill 605, which would allow municipalities to lower the speed limit on state highways in school zones. This could be a way to lower the speed limit on Greenbelt Road in front of Eleanor Roosevelt High School. The bill, in the Judiciary Committee, said Putens, could die in committee and never reach the floor of the House unless citizen support is shown.

Putens shared the telephone and fax numbers of Delegate John Arnich, chair of the Judiciary Committee: (301) 858-3488 phone, (301) 858-3850 fax.

Trees

Foy reported that he had preliminary information on a state of Maryland program allowing citizens to purchase trees and on a Chesapeake Bay Trust Fund grant program that would provide grants for the purchase and planting of trees in Maryland's watersheds. He promised to find out more information and share it with the members.

The next meeting of GEAC will be held at 7:30 p.m. on April 4 at Windsor Green.

Museum Closed till April

The Greenbelt Museum will be closed to the public for the next two weeks while original windows are being installed. The museum will reopen on April 7.

Seeking Eager Gardeners

Vegetable gardeners and flower gardeners are invited to join the Greenbelt Garden Club and use one of the 50 foot by 50 foot plots this year.

B&G Club Holds Baseball Signups

by Jeff Keir

With April almost here, thoughts of baseball abound. The thoughts of the "boys of summer" dreaming of rounding the bases, and heading for that slide into home plate. Again this year, the Greenbelt Boys and Girls Club is seeking boys ages 13-15 (born in 1978, 1977 and 1976) to form two county-level baseball teams — a 14 and under and a 15 and under team. Little League graduates are most welcome.

County baseball at this level is played on the traditional 90-foot diamond. The need to register and start practice as soon as possible is critical. The season starts in early May and runs through July.

The Club is holding three signups for baseball: Tuesday, March 26; Wednesday, April 3; and Friday, April 5. All three dates from 6:30-7:30 p.m. at the Youth Center. Additionally, a sign-up will be held on Friday, April 5, 6:30-7:30 p.m., at the Springhill Lake Rec. Center.

Current 1991-92 club members need only pay the club's Sport Fee at registration. Club members who have not paid the club's annual dues for 1991-92 need to pay that fee. New club members need to be accompanied by a parent to registration, bring a copy of their birth certificate and a recent photo of themselves (a school photo), and must be prepared to pay the fees at the time they register.

Practices will begin the week of April 8 on Braden Field. Players need to provide their own gloves (except catchers), always wear long pants or sweats, and it is strongly recommended that players wear rubber cleated shoes and proper "protection."

For further information regarding club baseball, contact: Rod Gore (H) 345-2370 or Jeff Keir (H) 552-9234. Coaches are needed. For registration information contact: Mel Scites at (H) 441-8689, or call the club's Sports Information Line at: (202) 310-1066 (24 hours a day).

Light Needed

To the Editor:

I really believe that the city needs to put some kind of a light at the intersection which connects with Dominoes' Pizza. There is triple traffic, coming from the Center, Dominoes, the Gas Station and Crescent Road. I feel that it is a danger to the safety of both cars and pedestrians. Someone told me that people have already been hit by cars. Needless to say, with trucks refueling, Dominoes' quick delivery, and an inability to see around the corner coming from Parkway Road, it is most definitely a threat to safety.

Donna Costa Fletcher

Refuse to Fund

To the Editor:

According to Greenbelt's Chief of Police, it is too dangerous for his officers to stop speeders on Greenbelt Road (Md. 193) because the roadway lacks a wide paved shoulder (Greenbelt News Review, page 1, March 8, 1991).

Md. 193 in Greenbelt had wide paved shoulders until it was rebuilt two years ago. The lack of a paved shoulder or a wide curb lane impedes law enforcement, emergency vehicles, roadway maintenance, and bicycle traffic.

We depend on our representatives in Annapolis to insist on user friendly road designs. I believe the legislature should refuse to fund any highway project that lacks paved shoulders or wide curb lanes.

Willis M. Gault

Willis M. Gault, 82, a Greenbelt violin maker who was also a musician, died March 13 at the Greenbelt Nursing Home where he had been a patient for the past year.

He began making violins and teaching others the art in an area of Washington, D.C. called the "old music quarter" which has disappeared to make way for high-rise office buildings. For 27 years, he made instruments for such diverse musicians as members of the Budapest String Quartet and Supreme Court Justice Abe Fortas. Unlike most violin makers, who passed their craft on to others individually, Gault ran a school where music students and musicians learned how to make instruments for their own use and who, in many cases, became instrument makers with country-wide reputations. Among these students was Gary Sturm, now collections manager of bowed stringed instruments at the Smithsonian Institution. Sturm observed in the recent Washington Post obituary feature article that Gault "nurtured in students a real love for what they were doing."

Born in Showell on Maryland's Eastern Shore, he taught himself to play the violin before he was nine years old and at that age made his own violin. As a teenager, he apprenticed with a Washington violin maker. He worked for 13 years as an accounting clerk for the Treasury Department before opening his violin shop. His fascination with ancient music led him to co-found the Ancient Instrument Society of Washington. His enthusiasm was directed especially toward reviving interest in the viola d'amore, a 14-string instrument popular during the 1500's and 1600's. He made 160 instruments modeled after those used in earlier centuries.

Gault founded several string ensembles, he composed four works for viola d'amore and orchestra, some of which were recorded here, and he played with the Prince Georges County Civic Symphony and the Montgomery County Symphony.

Survivors include his wife,

Katherine Gault of Oxon Hill; a son, James, of La Plata; two grandchildren and a great-grandson.

Graveside services were held on March 16 at Odd Fellow Cemetery in Bishopville, but a memorial service is planned for 1 p.m. this Saturday, March 23, at the Mowatt Memorial United Methodist Church in Greenbelt. Memorial contributions may be sent to the church music fund.

Mileski Resigns from GHI Board

Ken Mileski, member of the Board of Directors of Greenbelt Homes Inc., submitted his resignation at the board meeting held on March 14. Mileski will be leaving Greenbelt to return to Wisconsin where his family resides. A new board member will be appointed to fill the vacancy until the annual meeting in May.

Sublease Request

GHI members Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bernheisel were present to respond to questions regarding their request to sublease their home for 27 months, longer than the period usually approved by the board. Bernheisel's parents are applying for the Peace Corps and have requested the younger Bernheisels to house sit. The board granted approval for this exception to the regulations.

Shed Regulations

At its last meeting, the board voted to revise the GHI Rules and Regulations to prohibit erection of any new metal sheds. A discussion of the proposed new shed regulations was slated for this meeting. The topic was tabled, however, to review the issue of metal sheds.

Replacement Windows

Since the closeout of the rehab program in 1984, GHI staff have been authorized to contract for replacement of windows that, for various reasons, were not replaced during rehab. Although members were able to finance this work through the rehab loan, they were required to pay any unpaid amount at the time they sold their unit. Conversely, loan payments for the official rehab work can be passed on by selling members to purchasers. The board has now revised its policy so that selling members who purchased replacement windows after the rehab program will not be required to repay the loan upon resale or transfer of the unit.

Replacement Glass

After soliciting bids, GHI approved entering into a contract with Beltway Window Systems to measure and install replacement window glass for GHI members. Currently members are responsible for paying for all glass breakage. Under this contract, interested members will contact GHI staff who will arrange for the glass replacement. GHI will pay the contractor and, then, bill the member. The question of whether members should pay for breakage that is not their fault (the current regulation) was brought up. The board agreed to address this issue during 1992 budget discussions.

Block Home Siding

At its last meeting, the board reviewed cost estimates for installing insulation and vinyl siding on the block homes. An estimate for a middle unit is approximately $3,700 or about $42 per month. Staff was requested to prepare a letter to ascertain how many of the 256 members living in block units would be interested in siding.

Police Blotter

Based on Information
Released by the Greenbelt
Police Department

At 6:15 p.m. on March 10, a 20-year-old nonresident male was stabbed in the back by another 20-year-old nonresident male during a fight in the parking lot of Bennigan's Restaurant (Beltway Plaza). The latter man was arrested and charged with assault with intent to murder. He appeared before a District Court Commissioner and was held on $30,000 bond pending trial.

On March 10 an armed robbery that occurred on January 11 was reported: two people came up to an 18-year-old male who was standing outside a rear entrance to Beltway Plaza about 11 p.m. and demanded his jacket at gunpoint. The youth fled towards Cherrywood Lane. The other people followed him and were joined by five other people. Some shots were fired at the youth. The group eventually caught the youth and robbed him of his coat; then they got into a Nissan Pathfinder with tinted windows and MD Chesapeake tags and left. One of the group is described as male, 17 years old, wearing a black Chicago Bears starter's jacket with a hood and a hat over the hood pulled down to cover his face.

Around 2:20 a.m. on March 9 in the 7600 block of Greenbelt Road, two people approached a man who was asking for directions and struck him in the face with a bottle. They were then arrested and charged with disorderly intoxication, assault and battery, and malicious destruction. One of them was a 17-year-old nonresident male who was released to his parent pending action by Juvenile Services. The other was a 23-year-old resident male who was held on $10,000 bond pending trial.

A 15-year-old resident male tried to hit a police officer who was taking custody of a runaway juvenile in the 100 block of Westway at 4:10 p.m. on March 13. The resident was then arrested and found to have several types of knives. He was charged with assaulting a police officer, resisting arrest, and possession of concealed deadly weapons; he was released to his mother pending action by Juvenile Services.

On March 13 a 40-year-old resident male was arrested for battery after he had kicked a pregnant woman in the stomach during a domestic argument in the 5900 block of Cherrywood Terrace.

On March 13 a breaking and entering was reported in the 9100 block of Springhill Drive. A TV and cash were stolen.

On March 13 a 29-year-old nonresident male was arrested for tampering with a motor vehicle after he was seen attempting to open a car door in the 5800 block of Greenbelt Road.

A white Motomarin Sebring moped, with no registration tags, was stolen from Beltway Plaza on March 9.

Vandalism to, thefts from, and attempted thefts of autos were reported in the following areas: the 6200 block of Breezewood Drive, the 9100 block of Edmonston Court, the 7400 block of Frankfort Place, the 5800 block of Greenbelt Road, Beltway Plaza, Greenway Shopping Center, the 6900 block of Hanover Pkwy., Route 201 and Ivy Lane, the 7200 block of Mathew St., the 400 block of Ridge Road, and the 7800 block of Walker Drive.

"When buyers think Greenbelt, they think REALTY 1."

Our Neighbors

by Linda Savaryn, 474-5285

Greenbelters were saddened to hear of the death of Willis Gault, violin maker and musician, who was so much a part of Greenbelt's musical life. Mr. Gault died on March 13 in the Greenbelt Nursing Home.

We were sorry, also, to hear that the Rev. Johanna Stroetker died on March 4 in California. She came to the Greenbelt Community Church from California in 1966 to serve as part-time minister of Christian Education.

Get well wishes to Diane Zolnaski, instrumental music teacher at Center School, who is recovering from surgery.

Friends of Fan Schein will be pleased to hear that she is recovering very well from recent surgery.

Proud grandparents, Audrey and Carl Boushell, 5-H Ridge Road, and Marv Ann and James Kuntz, of Lanham, announce the arrival of their first grandchild. Michael Clinton was born March 13. Parents are Clinton Boushell, former Greenbelt News Review staffer and wife Susan of Bowie. Congratulations all!!

Laura Millman Knutson, a special bandperson at Fort Myer, Va., has been promoted to staff sergeant in the U.S. Army.

The daughter of Esther R. Sun of Greenway Place, she graduated in 1984 from ERHS, and in 1989 received a master's degree from North Illinois University, DeKalb.

It's a boy for Patrick and Sharon Clark of Ridge Road. Jeremiah Keith Clark was born February 8 weighing 8 lbs., 9 ozs. at Holy Cross Hospital.

Weighing in at 7 lbs., 15 ozs., Kaitlyn Michelle Dement was born January 25 at Holy Cross Hospital. She is the daughter of Kenneth and Kimberly Dement of Jacobs Drive.

Lisa Christine Hufnell arrived January 26 at Holy Cross Hospital and weighed in at 8 lbs., 3 ozs. She is the daughter of William and Christine Hufnell of South Ora Court. Waiting to greet Lisa were brother William, age 19 months, along with Aunt Lisa and Uncle Gerry Hufnell of Lakecrest Drive.

Janet Parker and Les Robinson have just returned to Greenbelt after visiting friends in Florida. Former Greenbelters, Lee and Larry Fink, Lil and Sam Schwimer, Gladys Chasoff, Nora Levsky, Vivian Pines, Buelah Bukzin, and Edith Ratzkin send greetings.

Bradley Scott Fitzenreiter is here along with his mom, Gina, visiting grandmother and granddad Pat and Dick Fitzenreiter of Boxwood while Daddy Scott is in the Middle East with the 82nd Airborne. Normally they live in Fayetteville, N.C., close to Ft. Bragg, where the 82nd Airborne is stationed.

Spc. Andrew Cooley of the 82nd Airborne, who had been in Saudi Arabia since August, arrived last week at Fort Bragg, and by the end of this week should be here in Greenbelt. Welcome home!

During the ground war he was in Iraq with the French. Before the actual fighting began, he received a Field Medal during training exercises in Saudi Arabia.

He is the son of James and Brenda Cooley of Lastner Lane.

It's Circus Time

It's circus time at Greenbelt Center School. On Wednesday, March 27 at 10 a.m. the students will present Center School's version of the "Greatest Show on Earth" in the school gym.

Pupils from kindergarten through sixth grade will sing, dance, twirl, tumble, and juggle. Beginning with a circus parade with kindergarten elephants, the show will continue in circus rings with ringmasters and mistresses guiding them all. And, of course, there will be clowns. What is a circus without clowns!

Under the guidance of music teacher Wilma Vazquez the show promises to transform Center's gym for a day. Parents are invited to attend.

Rally for Fully Funded Public School System

County residents favoring the full funding of public education in Prince Georges public schools are urged to attend a public rally Saturday, March 23, 11 a.m. The rally will be held in the County Administration Building, Governor Oden Bowie Drive, Upper Marlboro. For more information on full funding call Bonnie S. Jenkins, Director, Department of Public Affairs and Communications (301) 952-6005.

Meeting on Girls' Soccer In P.G. County Schools

Girls' soccer might be included in the 1992 budget of the Prince Georges high schools. Chuck Brown, supervisor of Physical Education and Athletics for county schools, will discuss the possibility of including girls' soccer within the projected 1992 athletic budget. The meeting will be in the Media Center of the Eleanor Roosevelt High School, Tuesday, March 26, at 7 p.m. The public is invited.
